

Editor's Say: Sina Hanua Vetali.

Blessed month of November has come about and all activities for this year are winding up. Most of us are preparing for our children's school closing and graduation. Apparently our circuit is now in mourning of our beloved mother of Morobe Circuit; Marama Avia Rahe.

However, words cannot express our inner most feeling of gratitude and we convey our condolences and sympathy to the bereaving family, Rev. Piri Rahe Superintendent Minister and his children for the loss of his dear wife. On behalf of TUC ekalesia, we convey our thoughts and prayers for the family. WE SALUTE YOU MARAMA AVIA RAHE FOR YOUR HUMBLE LIFE OF SINGING AND LAUGHTER. YOUR SERVICE TO THE CHURCH, MC, UR.

Minister's Say: Rev. Rau Vetali

Let me welcome you all to our November edition of Taraka Trumpet. Some of the activities have happened so fast that it was like a wild storm that swept through our front yard. Passing onto glory of late; Sina Avia Rahe and Rev. Puri Lama, certainly brought us sorrow and sadness as a Church. Despite such unexpected circumstances we have carried on as a body of believers.

With the Chairman Mr. Steven Hulamari, we wish to thank you all faithful members of Taraka United Church for your generosity and cooperation in fulfilling all our programs from mid-October to November. When TUC CYM was called to perform during MCCYM Talent Show the rain started pouring, however it did not deter their spirit, they all ran out to perform. I was touched by such commitment. We have a Church tomorrow because our children are so eager and willing. As a Church let keep fanning this flame in our children. Thank you all once again for everything in Jesus mighty name.
