Editor's Say: Sina Hanua Vetali.

Finally, we are in December and soon we will be farewelling 2019. Sorry for the long delays in our Taraka Trumpet editions for November and December. We have been assured of Taraka Trumpet website, however; we will continue with this system until further development. I have noticed few of our members asking for the next editions, it's a good indication that you are following our calendar events on Taraka Trumpet. Well we all are by now looking forward to the festive period. Those who are travelling home, grace and peace of God be with you. Let us not lose focus on the main reason for this season because it is all about Him - Jesus Christ. Merry Christmas and Blessed 2020!

Minister's Say: Rev. Rau Vetali

"We Saw His Star!" (Matt 2:2) These three characters are called; magi, astrologers, wise men, or 3 kings. They came from the far east because they saw a Star which was different from millions of others in the eastern night life. This Star told them of a child to be born as King of the Jews.

Whatever the population of humanity was in that era, these three may have been the only ones who witness this strange yet a prophetic Star. They did not only saw the Star and took note of it but gathered their wealth and went searching for it. A simple star was what moved these awesome three. They will remain unnamed in history. They will be remembered by the number three (3) only. But the impact of their journey will remain a legacy. Let us keep our hearts and minds open to God for his purposes through us as these three. On behalf of my family, we wish you all a very Merry Christmas & Prosperous 2020.

CHAIRMAN'S Say: Mr. Steven Hulamari

It's December; so from the chair, it's early Merry Christmas & Happy 2020 to you all. Take good care of yourselves from the trials and challenges of this coming festive season. Let us keep in tune through prayer for and with one another. Keep praying for Rev. Dixon Elias, Mama Auri Herry, Rau Vetali Jnr, Doris Mwawesi and Harriet Hulamari. Keep your family altars going until all activities and programs for 2020 resume.
